

Who are Australian Central

Australian Central was born in SA over 20 years ago, with business now extended to over 500 employees across SA, NT and WA. A big family with a focus on internal career progression - It's not just a job at Australian Central, you're central to all operations in the banking and finance sectors and its a part of our business to build you a career. Staff, member or client - at Australian Central, you're central to everything we do.

Your career options at Australian Central

- Retail Banking
- National Call Centre
- Information Technology
- Marketing Services
- Accounting
- Treasury & Risk
- Credit Control
- Lending Support
- Home Loan Advice
- Management
- Human Resources & Training
- Support Services

Your development at Australian Central

We're committed to providing our employees with every opportunity to further develop their career by ensuring all job vacancies are offered to internal staff to apply, which range from short term secondments to ongoing roles.

Some of the other career development opportunities we offer you at Australian Central include:

- Coaching for performance development
- Youth development program
- Studies assistance scheme - paid study leave
- Secondment and project opportunities

Our commitment to you

Our goal is to make sure that "it's a good feeling to belong to Australian Central".

We believe that you are entitled to employment conditions of a very high standard. We are committed to treating you as an individual and respecting your rights.

We strive to create an environment where, throughout your career with us, you feel valued and rewarded for your dedication and commitment. We consider our people to be a strong network of highly trained and qualified people using and sharing information and knowledge. We aim to build and support a healthy organisation so that you feel good about being a part of the Australian Central team.

How you can get involved

Each year we co-ordinate a number of corporate events and community initiatives, which we encourage you to participate.

Corporate events:

- Casual days
- Community lottery
- 100 Club
- Footy tipping competition
- Christmas function

Community initiatives:

- The Australian Central Workplace Giving Programme
- Becoming a Blood Donor with Australian Red Cross
- The Credit Union Christmas Pageant (in Adelaide)
- Life. Be in it. Corporate Challenge (in Darwin)
- Australian Central Teddy Bears' Picnic (in Darwin)

Our Australian Central Social Club also arranges a number of informal and fun events throughout the year including happy hours, quiz nights and family fun days.

How you can apply for a career at Australian Central

To view a list of current vacancies at Australian Central log onto www.accu.com.au and select the 'Careers' section under 'About Us'.

Or email your resume and covering letter as to why you want to work at Australian Central to jobs@accu.com.au or post to GPO Box 1942, Adelaide SA 5001.