Trading Places – Information Evening for Parents & Girls Interested in Trades

Is your daughter interested in one of those career pathways which is often referred to as 'non-traditional' for women?

This is an ideal opportunity to investigate pathways into employment or further education and /or training. Women currently working in trades will be present to speak briefly of their personal journey. Displays and resources available.

Have your questions answered from 6.30 – 7.45pm on Thursday 23rd July at Performing Arts Centre, Christies Beach High School, Morton Road, Christies Downs. (Note: This is an open event for parents and students from Govt and Non-Govt schools in the South). All welcome!

(A free day of 'try-a-trade' workshops for girls interested in a 'hands-on' experience in furnishing, automotive, construction, metal engineering and advanced manufacturing will be held for students from schools in the Southern Region on Thursday 30 July 2009. See website for schedule and locations.)
