

Skills SA Career Development Web Portal Now Available

In a world of constant change it is becoming more important to be flexible with the roles and tasks people are required to perform in life and work.

Career development is the process of managing these roles and tasks and is fundamental if you are looking for work, if you are already employed, or you are an employer.

The Skills SA Career Development web portal has been developed as a single entry point to provide you with a range of career development resources and services.

To access these resources visit www.skills.sa.gov.au/careerdevelopment

The portal links to over 70 websites related to career development, employment and training, further and higher education, career services and employment statistics.

Information about the careers development services provided through South Australia Works to unemployed and underemployed people and people returning to the workforce can also be found at the South Australia Works website www.saworks.sa.gov.au/careerssa
